Just Passing Through

By KEN ADACHI

What's with the Teen-Ager?

From Frisco way comes report that the Nisei teen-ager is succumbing to juvenile delinquency and that the breakdown of the moral fibre of the Nisei teen-age group out there is the just result of the evacuation. But in Chi I've read reports that the Nisei teen-agers were too rowdy and as a result some of the owners of dance halls refused to rent to them.

But up in Canada, here in Toronto where there is probably the biggest group of Nisei teen-agers, there's been little if any delinquency of any sort. Toronto is a breeding nest for tough gangs such as the Beanery, Junction, Tips, Cabbage-town boys and others but the Nisei group is relatively a quiet one.

But of late, I've heard several assorted gripes against them. "All they're interested in is dancing, sports or shooting a game of pool" is a common remark that I've heard many a time.

This isn't a defense but teen-agers have always been criticized by the older generation. Just human nature, that's all. When this current edition of teen-agers grows up, they'll probably be levelling blasphemy on the new breed that's replaced them. It's a vicious circle. It was the Charleston, the Lindy-Hop back in the earlier days that were regarded as the scourge of the teen-agers. Now it's boogie, be-bop.

But there are disturbing problems. Several weeks ago, I took a phone call from one Nisei guardian that was of a curious nature, to say the least. Her ward was an active participant in sports and his name had appeared in several issues with the usual adjectives describing his play. She requested that in future we delete any such adjectives that came to us in the reports and she explained her reason. . :

It seemed that such reports would tend to give this 17-year-old lad a severe case of a swelled head and conceit. This kid was a problem child of the first water, having failed several times in school and there was something psychologically unsound about him. She had much difficulty in trying to straighten him out, she said.

Too much activity in sports can only lead to the breakdown of mental balance. I know one Nisei teen-ager whose only interest is in sports and that has had its repercussions. He's failed several times at school and his family has had a more than trying time to make him see the error of his ways. But in this case, it can be laid to the family over-leniency and indulgence. But these problems are few and far between. I hope.

Officers For Winnipeg Women's Club Chosen, Program Includes Handiwork, Guest Speakers

WINNIPEG. — On Sept. 23, under the sponsorship of Miss B. Megaffin, a Winnipeg Nisei Young Women's Club was formed. This group was organized primarily to give opportunity for the young married and single girls to further acquaint themselves and at the same time to provide a medium for the exchange of interesting ideas.

The following officers were elected at the meeting: Miss Ruth Akagawa, president; Mrs. T. Okamoto, vice-president; Mrs. F. Okamura, secretary; Mrs. L. Onotera, treasurer; Mrs. F. Hirose and Mrs. K. Kusano, social committee; Mrs. S. Hirose and Mrs. T. Sato, sick committee; Miss Megaffin, councellor.

This cultural group have arranged to meet on the first and third Friday of each month at 8 p.m. It was also decided that the first Friday will be devoted to handiwork (sewing, embroidery, crocheting, knitting, shellwork, floral arrangement and exchange of recipes). The other Friday will be reserved for guest speakers.

The next meeting of the Nisei Young Women's Club will be held at the Upper Room of the Knox United Church on Friday, Nov. 18, at 8 p.m.

The guest speakers for that evening will be Miss I. Murton and Mr. Jack Cook, both from the University of Manitoba, who will talk on "Furniture and Color In Home Decoration". Added entertainment will be a vocal solo by one of the public health nurses accompanied by Miss Alice Nakuchi.

Members of the Joy Circle have been invited and it is requested that all members make a special effort to be present at this meeting by 8 p.m. sharp.

ADDRESS BY JCCA PRESIDENT

I believe it is customary for the newly elected president to make his maiden speech at the close of the conference. So I take this opportunity to express my humble thanks to this Conference for having placed its confidence in me as president of this National organization.

Somewhere I read once the statement that the attainment of strength for a worthy purpose is due not to the genius of the few but to the faithfulness of the many. While taking part in the discussions of this Conference, I have observed the fact that every delegate attending this Conference has that quality of strength of faithfulness. I have noted, too, in past Conferences, this fine quality of character inherent in all delegates.

In looking back to our past two Conferences and noting the achievements attained through co-operation, as evidenced at this Conference, I have come to the conclusion that we have progressed in many ways. We have accomplished a great deal in the movement of the J.C.C.A.

There are certain restrictions which still govern persons of Japanese ancestry in this country. While we find it necessary to make some change in policy as evidenced at this Conference, in so doing, we are bearing in mind the fact that conditions are gradually getting more difficult for us to obtain the means of operation. By that I mean that we have found in talking together on budget matters for the coming year, the increased difficulties that face us in our work to obtain our financial objectives. However, it is all up to us to take upon ourselves the will to do our utmost to serve the Japanese Canadian people in our country, and I believe in doing that faithfully we shall be able to accomplish our aim.

Now, there is a saying which has come from the pen of some Chinese philosopher long ago in which he says—it is easy to bend one stick of wood, but to bend a number of sticks joined together is difficult and it is impossible to break them. It is with that same strength of spirit of joining hands together that I would like to ask you to continue giving your support to the movement which is the concern of this National organization and the concern of your member provincial chapters. I ask you to take that back to your provincial chapters and do your utmost to strengthen your provincial and local chapters. Unless you do so, it will be impossible to have a strong national organization.

In the past two presidents, you have had very capable persons, but now you have undertaken to place the responsibilty in my hands. In my opinion, you have assumed a great responsibility in placing me in the Senior office of President. Bearing in mind this step you have taken, placing me at the head of this organization, it is all the more reason that you should co-operate with each other and give your full strength and spirit to the organization in order that it may achieve for all the important objectives.

Therefore, I would remind you of the Chinese Philosopher's wisdom and ask you to work together, each with the other, and with that thought I take leave to conclude this Third National J.C.C.A. Conference.

As your president, I know I will receive your continued support. Thank you very much.

Correspondents Poll Opinion On Delegates

LETHBRIDGE, Alta. — Taking time out from their reporting of the 3rd National JCCA Conference, Jon Reimer of the CP, Bill Skeleton of the radio station CJOC and James T. Hori of The New Canadian arrived at the following decisions about the various delegates.

Fightingest delegate, Fred Kayahara of Toronto; best speaker, Tom Shoyama of Regina; most serious, George Tanaka, the national secretary; nicest to look at, Miss Setsu Takemoto of Greenwood; tallest, Nobby Ogura, Montreal; quietest, Nobby Fujisawa of Greenwood.

Shin Ogura was noted by the correspondents as the only delegate who knew how to keep the long hours of discussion by sketching the profile of another delegate.

Of the delegates who were present, only two were representatives last year, Harold Hirose of Winnipeg and Kar Kobayashi of Kamloops.

Wants To Sue U. S. For $81 Billion

TOKYO. — A Hawaiian-born Nisei, Masaro Murakawa, 40, announced he would seek reinstatement of his American citizenship so he could sue the U. S. government for 81 billion dollars. Murakawa, who renounced his citizenship in 1945, said the government owed him a billion dollars a month from 1942 when he was interned to December, 1948.

He was interned in wartime concentration camp during a part of his 81 months. During his internment, Murakawa said, he was twice given sanity tests.

General Lauds JCCA At Confab Banquet

LETHBRIDGE, Alta. — Over 65 guests and delegates attended the National Conference Banquet held at the Marquis Hotel on Nov. 5.

Brigadier-General W. E. Huckvale, the guest speaker for the evening commended the JCCA for advocating a bill of rights for Canada. He said that a halt must be put to any attempts to take rights away from the people. He pointed out the attempt of the Alberta government in 1938 to control the Provincial newspapers as an example of legislation to deprive the freedom of the press.

Tom Shoyama, the past president spoke on the progress of the Japanese who came to Alberta as the result of the evacuation seven years ago. He said the record of progress of these people is difficult to parallel with those of evacuees in other provinces.

John Kumagai, delegate from Ontario thanked the people of Lethbridge for the warm reception accorded the visiting delegates.

Among the prominent guests were his Worship, the Mayor J. A. Jardine and Mrs. J. A. Jardine, General and Mrs. W. E. Huckvale, Alderman and Mrs. A. G Virtue, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Turcotte, Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Rudd and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wallace.

THE WORK OF CARE

CARE is a non-profit, person-to-person overseas package agency, set up and operated by 26 major relief agencies to sending much needed food and clothing abroad. It assembles standard food and other relief packages; transports and stock-piles them overseas and guarantees delivery to relatives, friends, needy people and institutions.

They purchase food and clothing textiles in vast quantities thereby affording maximum values for relief funds. They have spent more than $1,500,000 in Canada to date.

Canadian CARE accepts orders, forwards it together with the remittance to New York and from there it is airmailed to the CARE Mission nearest the recipient. CARE sends a receipt from Ottawa, a receipt from New York and a receipt from overseas signed by the person to whom the package is addressed.

CARE orders for GENERAL RELIEF are deductible for income tax purposes.

Their food and clothing program for Japan is now in its second year of operation. They provide a special Japanese food package, composed of foods chosen on the basis of national dietary preference and greatest need. To help fill Japan's need, textile, woolen suiting, blanket and knitting wool packages are also available.

CARE packages for Japan are available through CARE, Ottawa.

With Christmas little over a month away, it would be an ideal gift for some needy family in Japan.

AN ASIATIC VISITOR

Never in the history of Canada has a non-Caucasian visitor ever been so widely acclaimed and so enthusiatically received than the Prime Minister of India, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru. The press in whatever city he visited devoted much space to the occasion as well as to stress the significance of fomenting good relations between Canada and India which only recently gained its sovereignty.

When he entered the Canadian Parliament at Ottawa to speak before the elected representatives, the assembled members cheered and thumped their desks for the humble man who is the chosen head of the many millions in his country.

Yet it was not long ago when one of the provinces of this country still denied the franchise to members of Mr. Nehru's race. Undoubtedly, some of the members from that province who thumped their desks were those very peoples who opposed the granting of the vote to Asiatics.

Today, while no Canadians are ineligible to vote for reasons of race, there still remains much to be desired in the way of equal opportunities for all in Canada, irrespective of race, colour or creed. Then, there is the matter of inequalities in Canada's immigration policy.

Cheering and desk thumping is a tribute to a great world leader, but if Canada seeks the friendship of all nations, she must first show her goodwill in deeds.

CARE Head Honors Chief Abbot Otani

OTTAWA, Ont. — Paul Comly French, Executive Director of CARE, honoured Chief Abbot Kocho Otani, head of the Higashi Hongwangi Buddhist sect in Japan, and Mrs. Otani, last week at a luncheon in New York, according to a CARE report from here.

The Chief Abbot and Mrs. Otani, who is a younger sister of the Empress of Japan, are on a two-months goodwill tour of the United States and Canada to thank the people for their gifts of food and clothing to needy Japanese.

"We particularly want to tell Canada and the United States how much their CARE packages have meant in rehabilitating postwar Japan," the Abbot said. "These gifts have been an invaluable expression of friendship and goodwill. We in Japan have come to have a new appreciation of what democracy means. This evidence of concern for our people strengthens our new concepts of democracy."

The Abbot expressed belief that person-to-person giving can do much to build spiritual harmony, and the understanding and goodwill through which nations can live together in peace.

Going to Hamilton

There is room for a few more who wish to go down to Hamilton this week-end with the performers who are taking part in the Hamilton JCCA concert. The bus leaves Queen and Spadina at 4 p.m. on Sat. Nov. 19 and will leave Hamilton between 11-12. The fare will be $1.25 return.

For reservations or inquiry call The New Canadian PL. 5005.

THE WEEKLY HABIT

By TOYO TAKATA

Why is it that so very few of us wear hats? The proportion of Nisei males who drape their crown with some form of headgear is in the minority and we would confidently venture that only about one out of ten Nisei males of post-twenty vintage habitually protect their dome with a lid. The others, and include us too, prefer to leave their scalp unadorned, winter, summer or rain.

Even in the coldest or wettest weather when a hat would provide warmth and protection to the noggin, Mr. Average Nisei remains the Hatless One, and would rather take a chance on petrified ears and icicles on his moxie container. Could be he has no moxie.

He is burlapped in a heavy coat, protects his pavement contacts with rubbers or goloshes, his fingers are warmed in fur-lined mittens, chokes himself with a scarf and underneath he is surrounded in wool frequently from the neck down to the ankles, but he leaves untended, the supposedly most vital and uppermost portion of his five and a little more anatomy.

Not satisfied with merely accepting the hatless situation, we decided to query our bareheaded associates to probe into the reason behind this. And we ended up with an assortment of answers.

The frequent reply was, to put it in our words, "I look funny enough without a hat, but wear one, it's not even funny." To that we neither agreed nor disagreed.

"Wearing a hat's okay, but after I take it off, I got to recomb my hair. And this operation has to take place every time I remove it, was another answer to our quizzing.

"It's the shape of my head. No matter what kind I wear, it slides down one way or the other. Anyway, I don't think the Oriental head is shaped to wear a hat properly."

"I have to use a lot of grease on my hair and it would make the hat dirty."

"Don't like it and can't be bothered."

The times we've had by wearing a chapeau on a crowded streetcar has convinced us that we would leave it home for good. Being short, the hat is constantly brushing somebody's shoulder or arms, and it's forever being knocked from side to side by elbows and sundry parts of taller individuals.

This week-end we'll be heading down to Hamilton to assist the JCCA down there to put on a concert. We're taking a large group down and we can assure the Hamiltonians that the show we've prepared together with the talent from Hamilton amounts to a good evening's entertainment.

The latest to join our troupe [illegible] Uchida's 11-piece orchestra. And we'll also have some [illegible] performers of [illegible] concert held in Toronto [illegible] together with [illegible] of the Toronto JCCA show.

By the way, there's still a few seats left in our bus and if anyone wishes to drop down to Hamilton for the evening on Nov. 19 at a very reasonable fare, give us a call.

* * *

See where they're raising some fuss because Margaret Rose smoked in public.

While we neither approve nor disapprove, it's the current tendency of royalty to get down to the so-called common level.

Here's another ripple in the same stream. Just recently, Chief Abbot Otani and Lady Otani who is the younger sister of the Empress of Japan visited Canada. In re-crossing to the United States at Niagara Falls, we understand that Lady Otani was wearing slacks.

In Our World

By AYA SUGIMOTO

Gems of Thought

The world can be so wonderful—if we make it so! If we have the will to work and make it beautiful—that is all we need—for all the work there is in this world is just taking advantage of the energies placed here by God at the beginning of Time.

At twenty, I profess to know so little of the world and its ways. The road of life can be a bumpy thing at times, can't it? Yet, if we were to stop awhile and ponder, we can see many times the reason why those bumps are there.

So many people today seem so discontented, perplexed and restless. Why? First of all, why must a person have need to complain? Must we be so perplexed because temptations and vexations of our environment seem to crowd around us? Why can't we remember that working to relieve these vexations is the practice which He has appointed us to teach us to be more patient, humble, generous and kind? Praying helps, I know, but it is in action, not thought, that true hope lies.

Need we envy that which others have? Is it not in envy that we find the tap roots to complaint? There really should be one person we should have cause to envy—that is the person who "envieth not".

What peace there must be in those who know kindness—for there is nothing so honourable as Love. Love is patience—patience to bring about a more harmonious world about us.

There are those who [illegible] the far reaching heights [illegible] —have they forgotten [illegible] rests only when it [illegible] lowest place; so do [illegible] should be lowly—it is the [illegible] who demand the most.

Why do these things [illegible] A question well asked [illegible] Nothing happens by chance [illegible] There must be a [illegible] every effect, for effects [illegible] only causes.

And so, to all you [illegible] find yourselves having [illegible] difficulties, read these [illegible] thought and treasure the [illegible] patience, effort, and faith [illegible] only in yourself but in [illegible] and in your God!

天と地とに

人の一生はそれぞれ一本の線であり、そこには美しく相交るべく見えてつひに相交らぬ線もある。——星の神秘な光は、八十二に、運命について考へさせ、運命のかなしさについて考へさせた。

——さうだ。自分はやつぱり佳代と結婚すべきだ。杉野先生には、明日にでも、はつきり事情を申し上げてお斷りしよう。……

と彼は思つた。

そして、氣がつくと八十二は阪和線の軌道に近い廣い草原に來てゐた。佳代と散歩する時、彼らの足はいつもこの方向に向いた。八十二には今夜の佳代がきつと一人でこのあたりをさまよつてゐるに違ひないやうな豫感が部屋を飛び出す時からしてゐたのだ。

立ち止まつて、八十二はあたりを見廻した。草原の暗がりのなかに、白い道がつづきそのむかうを俯向いて歩いてゐる一人の若い女らしい影繪が八十二の眼にはいつた。彼はつかつかとその方へ近づいて行つた。

間違ひなく、佳代だつた。

佳代は、うしろから來る足音に、振り返つた。そして、それが八十二であることに氣づくと、急にあわてたやうに足を速めて彼から遠ざからうとした。

八十二はさつさと近づいて行つた。

「待ち給へ。迎へに來たんだ」

と彼は言つた。

「馬鹿だなあ。こんな寂しいところで、一人で何をしてゐるんだ?」

佳代は、答へず、なほも逃げようとする。

八十二は、走り寄ると、うしろからあらあらしく佳代を抱いた。

佳代は振りほどかうとする八十二はお構ひなしに亂暴にくちびるをもとめた。天と地とに見せようとするやうに。佳代は涙に濡れたまつ毛を閉ぢた。

彼らの影はそのまま永いこと動かなかつた。

初冬の夜空は厳しく美しかつた。そして、星は見てゐた

資金募集運動完了

ケント・カウンテー市協支部で

【チャザム發】ケント・カウンテーの市協支部では十一月十二日夜當地に於て一世二世の合同集會を開催、友長勇氏が司會してトロントの梅月高市氏から日系市協の運動全般に關する話をきゝ、ついで去る八月の集會で決定していた一世部組織につき改めて出席者一同の贊同を得て一世部委員として次の四氏を選擧した

△チャザムから久藤實、庄司安藏、馬場高次郎△シーダースプリンクスから春原順一

右の會合に報告されたところによると、ケント・カウンテー市協支部では既に、資金募集運動を成功裡に完了し、同區内在住日系人は昨年度の二五〇名から二〇〇名に減少しているにも拘らず資金は昨年以上に集めるという好成績を擧げている。尚梅月氏はニューカナディアン提供の日本ニュース寫眞の一部を携行して展覽し、茶菓のサーヴもあつて深夜閉會した。

チャザムを訪ねて

梅月高市

行きと歸りで十時間餘りの汽車の旅であつたが、どこまでも乘り續けていたい心持であつた。鐵橋の橋に見える川の水の色合いやうねり工合を見ては、魚釣りを想像したりして。秋立つ頃から旅がしたい、旅が——と考えながら、せめて紙上で旅の夢でもつづつてと、幾度かそれを書いたもの〻活字にする機會を得なかつたのであつた。

南オンタリオの南部に位するケント・カウンテー（其南端はエセックス區）日系市協の會合が去る土曜日夜チャザムで開かれたのに出席して多くの方々にお目にかゝれたのは嬉しいことであつた。遠くサーミントンの中島さんや箭子さん、シーダースプリングスの春原さんや小袋さんたちも來られ「戰爭以來」の人や初めての人、さては、私も同じ郷の……と名乘る方々など旅の樂しさを味わつた。

停車場で會つた堀田君夫妻やミス矢ノ下、そして八木三郎君。病院に勤めている久藤さんの家を訪ねて暫らく雜談し、八木君の家でお邪魔して同君からカナダと日本の俳句の話をきゝ會場に案内してもらつた。庄司さん松林さん達全く久方振の人が多かつた。

夜半すぎて散會してからチヤーリング・クロスの藤井さんの自動車で茅原君の所へ送つて貰い、そこで一夜の宿をかして貰つたが、ミセス茅原から昨年なくなつた呂惆氏のことその他をきゝ積もる話はなか〳〵に盡きなかつた。

翌くる朝、藤井さんがまた自動車で停車場まで送り屆けて下さる序に、世界第二というチャザムの砂糖工場などを見せて下さつた。藤井さんの話では南部オンタリオの今年のシュガービートは上出來でエーカー當り十六、七トン。アルバータ州などよりも多く作つたそうで工場のヤードは見渡す限りビーツの山である。

杉山保太郎君が一家總動員でレストランドを始めて繁昌していると聞いたので、そこにも立ち寄つて、長い間の勞苦が實を結びつゝあることに祝意を表した。

前後自動車で送つて貰うとき同乘したミセス藤井に、近頃俳句はどうですかと尋ねたら、忙しすぎて氣が落ちつかぬので——と言つて居られたが、朝迎いに來てくれた藤井さんは「今朝起きてから妻は何か書いていましたよ」と言つて渡してくれた紙片には次のように書きつけてあつた。

込入つた對日講和

ロシアばかりが難點ではない

【ワシントン發】米國は英國と共同して對日平和條約締結の促進をはかつているがなかなか困難なる問題があつてロシアばかりが難點でもない。例えば米國では日本占領維續の費用を輕減するために日本を早く經濟的に自立させたがつて居り其のためには賠償も殆ど取らぬというやり方であるが、それでは日本から大きな賠償を取つて經濟回復を計ろうとしているヒリッピンを承知させることが出來ない。同じ極東の英聯邦國たる濠洲とニュージーランドも米國の利益とは一致して居らず、此の二國は同じ東洋內の一分子として日本とは產業商業上で競爭せねばならぬ立場にあるのである。更に支那もヒリッピンと同樣に日本から大きな賠償を得ることを豫期して居り長期に亘つて日本の回復を阻止したい方なのであり、其の上に支那は國民政府から共產政府に變つて居るのに米國は共產支那の承認を急ごうとはしていない。一方ロシアも對日講和には當然參加すべきものであるが、英米との意見が合わないところから英米はロシア抜きの對日平和條約をする話をすすめて居り、これが實現すれば日本はロシアとは別個に交渉し得る立場となりロシアは更に色々な方策をめぐらして自國に都合のよい道を開き得ることにもなる

明るい前途の期待

對日講和の動き活潑化

【東京特信】米の對日政策は最近國際狀勢を映して著しく積極化し、今回の講和についても自主的にソ連に顧慮せず同會議における拒否權をも認めない方針と傳えられ、明年の對米關係は漸しく活潑化するものと見られている。外務省では領事、商務官の人選も進み、各商社では海外渡航申請を約四百七十通提出しつつあり、これに伴つて日本船の外國航路就航、日本商社支店、代理店の設置なども實現目近しと意氣込んでいる。二日總司令部の發表では日本大學卒業生で三十五才以下の者から試驗で百名に一ヶ年米留學を與えるとあり、また四日にはかねて準備中の日本の國會議員、敎育家、法律家、ジャーナリストその他各界の專門家約百五十名の三ヶ月米見學が公表されて渡米熱をあおりたてている折柄、五日對日講和の米國草案完了の知らせは不安の日本に漸く前途への曙光を確實なものとした感があり明年早々の會議においてソ連中國が參加しない場合、また米國と日本といかなる軍事協定を結ぶか、問題は決して手放しに樂觀は許されないが、日本國民の率直な感情として不安定なる占領行政を脫して自立の見透しを確にし、產業、輸出の振興によつて國民の生活と文化も相當に水準を高めうる自信を得たのである（今澤正躬發信）

吉田首相がタンカ切る

『條約が不利なら會議から退場』

【東京發】吉田首相は十一日衆議院に於て「もし平和條約が日本に不利なる場合、日本は平和會議から退場するか又は全然これを受付けないまででもある」という聲明を行つたが翌十二日には其の聲明を撤回する旨發表し速記錄からこれを抹殺することを要求した。首相の右聲明に關し政府筋では何等かの反動が起りはせぬかと氣をもんでいるが、進駐軍當局では「何も然う騷がぬでもよい」という態度を示して居ると言われる。一方東京の各有力紙は吉田首相の聲明を大々的に取り上げ、特に首相が言明した「ソ連との單獨講和」

英米と單獨講和

受諾してもよい

【東京發】吉田首相は十一日の衆議院で「西歐聯合諸國との別個な單獨講和が、やがては全面的解決への道を開くものならば日本はこれを受諾すべき講和は無いよりもましだ」という點を論じている

濠洲でも打合せ

【メルボーン發】對日平和條約締結促進問題を討議するために英本國、濠洲、ニュージーランドの外交當局が集まつて南東アジアと太平洋の全事態を討究することになつた。獨立して英聯邦の一つとなつたインドやパーキスタンのことも協議にのぼる筈で、日本の經濟を部分的に統制することも話し合うだろうが、濠洲も「日本を將來平和國家とするには其の經濟を回復して生活標準を高めるべきだ」という米國の意見に一致している

Mustangs, Rebels Win Openers

Mustangs completely overwhelmed the Whizz-Kids 73-35 and the Rebels took the measure of the Aces 68-47 as the curtain was raised on the 1949-50 season of the Toronto Nisei Basketball League at the Church of All Nations Gym on Nov. 11.

Mustangs vs. Whizz-Kids

In the opener, the '48-49 champs, Mustangs, teed off against the new entry in the loop, the Whizz-Kids. But the Whizz-Kids certainly didn't live up to their name as they were unmercilessly squelched by the thin red line. Both teams were attired resplendently as they lined up for the toss-up, Mustangs in red and white outfits and the Kids in blue and white trimmings. It was a rather dullish affair with little to cheer about as the smoother-functioning Mustangs took complete command of the play.

Whizz-Kids started off bravely as Yuki Kameoka who played a heads-up game at guard, notched the first basket of the season with a looping shot. Then the avalanche of baskets fell. By half time, the score was 33-13 in favour of the Mustangs who dominated the play by controlling most of the toss-ups and backboard rebounds. Both teams seemed rather sluggish as play continued in the second half. The Kids started as if they meant business as they counted four baskets without a reply, including two neat long shots by Shintani and Koyanagi. But that was all for the Kids who fought hard but in vain all the way to succumb to a 73-35 beating.

Gangling Herb Miyasaki led the red men with 22 points followed by Tosi Toyama with 14 points and Mucha Makimoto with 13 points. Yuki Kameoka and Aki Koyanagi were tops for the Kids with 10 points apiece.

Apart from brief sporadic flashes, the losers' game was off but this being their first game in senior competition as an unit, better things can be expected from them in the future. The tallish Mustangs' attack was methodical and not startling as they outclassed their much shorter opponents.

Mustangs: H. Miyasaki 22, Toki Toyama 14, M. Makimoto 13, K. Miyasaki 8, J. Inamoto 6, Y. Mori 4, R. Miyasaki 4, K. Obara 2, J. Toyama — 73.

Whizz-Kids: Y. Kameoka 10, Aki Koyanagi 10, A. Fujiwara 5, J. Kajioka 5, M. Fukumoto 3, S. Shintani 2, F. Miyasaki, J. Maikawa — 35.

Aces vs. Rebels

The second game was a much better played game and was closer than the 68-47 score in favor of Rebels would indicate. The Aces put on a fighting display in the third quarter and started to close the gap but Rebels pulled away again to rack up their 21 point margin at the final whistle.

Rebels displayed some neat passing and footwork to almost double the score by the end of the first half 32-17. In the third quarter, roused perhaps by George Takata's needling from the bench, Aces came to life and narrowed the score by 11 points. But Rebels put the clamp on their hopes of victory as they rolled up several quick baskets with Soc Tsukamoto leading the way to put the issue beyong doubt.

Tsukamoto, Kurita, Hirano and Ashikawa put on a good display for the Rebels while Seiji Takata and T. Miyashita sparked the Aces attack.

Rebels: S. Tsukamoto 14, P. Hirano 11, S. Ashikawa 11, R. Kurita 12, M. Fukumoto 6, H. Ioi 6, T. Izukawa 5, M. Mitsui 3, S. Akada — 68.

Aces: S. Takata 19, T. Miyashita 9, F. Sumi 9, K. Oda 4, A. Hayashi 4, G. Takata 2, J. Ouishi, D. Arai, T. Nakamura — 47.

From the first game showings, it appears that Mustangs and Rebels are in for a battle for league honours. This Friday's encounters should be an interesting one as Whizz-Kids square off against Aces in the first game at 8 p.m. and Rebels meet Mustangs in the second game. The results of these games should mark out the pattern of the race.

Six Teams In Action In Junior Basketball

HAMILTON. — The Inter-City Junior Basketball League opened their season as two teams from Toronto invaded Hamilton on Nov. 12. Two lopsided games were the result as Toronto TNT walloped Hamilton B, 58-10, and the Hamilton A quintet humiliated the Toronto Barons, 53-11.

Harry Uyede 16 pts., Frank Idenouye 12 pts., and Jim Kamino 10 pts. led TNT to their easy win. High scorers for Hamilton A were Wes Hyodo 14 pts., Tom and Jack Fukumoto 13 pts. each.

In Toronto, the two other teams in the loop played at the Church of All Nations with Stags winning a close game 37-30 over the Jets. A. Furukawa 10 pts., and T. Yoshida 12 pts. were tops for the winners. Mike Nagata 6 pts., Dave Nagata 10 pts. and T. Shimizu 8 pts. sparked the loser's attack.

On Sat. Nov. 19, Hamilton will visit Toronto with Stags playing host to Hamilton B at 8 p.m. and TNT to Hamilton A at 9 p.m. at the Church of All Nations.

Hockey Film, Dance

A general meeting of the Toronto Nisei Hockey League will be held at the Church of All Nations at 8 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 17.

The film, "Hockey Cavalcade" which includes shots of N.H.L. puck stars demonstrating methods of playing hockey will be shown. This film should be of benefit to all hockey enthusiasts. Players and others interested are asked to be present.

PASSING THRU

There was a very interesting article in one Canadian magazine on the terrors of teen-age dating entitled: "School dating is expensive—but heck". That it is expensive is confirmed by one Vancouver lad who says that $15.75 is par for the course for one week's dating. An Edmonton boy says that $10-12 is the usual weekly drainage upon his pocketbook to take sweet-and-lovely out. It varies according to the different cities in the Dominion.

About the only bright spots on the male horizon is "twirp season", leap year, Sadie Hawkins, or the disappearing Dutch Treat.

"Twirp Season" in which "the woman is requested to pay" is brilliant—says the poor male of the species. The woman should pay sometimes, shouldn't she, asks the male questioningly.

According to the article, an average outing to a movie costs the swain in Toronto $2.05 for the admission to the theatre and the after-movie snack. In Montreal, the minimum is regarded as $1.50.

Undoubtedly it is expensive but no one can disagree with the writer who had added the words, "—but heck!". It's too marvellous for words.

Election Of Officers Held By Nisei Vets

The recently formed Nisei veterans organization held its election at a meeting on Nov. 6. The following were chosen on the executive: Tom Sagara, chairman; Kinzie Nozaki, vice-chairman; Tad Goto, secretary-treasurer; Dick Adachi, publicity. Other officers will be chosen when needed.

It was decided that the organization will confine itself temporarily to social activities. It will branch out to other activities as soon as the group becomes stronger.

A committee for social activities was chosen. It will be headed by George Shintani with Dick Adachi, George Masuda, Kaide Shimizu, Joe Takashima and Fats Isezaki as members.

The next meeting will be held at the Towne Studio, 111 Dundas St. W., Toronto, on Sunday, Nov. 20 from 7:30 p.m. Since half of the veterans in Toronto are members of the organization, the others are asked to attend.

Kent County Japanese Population Decrease

CHATHAM, Ont. — The number of Japanese living in the Kent County has been reduced from 250 to about 200 since last year.

Despite this decrease it was reported that the JCCA fund drive has been successful.

On Nov. 12, the Kent JCCA held a joint Issei-Nisei meeting in Chatham which was conducted by Sam Tomonaga. The Issei-bu which was just recently organized elected its committee consisting of Minoru Kudo, Yasuzo Shoji and Takajiro Baba, all of Chatham, and Junichi Sunohara of Cedar Springs.

T. Umezuki of Toronto addressed the meeting on the general activities of the JCCA. Following the meeting, he exhibited some of The New Canadian's Japanese news pictures.
